

Haiti: Fuel Crisis and Protests

Tracking Global Events | 15th September 2022

Haitians have taken to the street to protest a myriad of shortcomings from their government. Chiefly among them is the worsening fuel crisis. Beginning in late August, Contributors began reporting long lines at fuel stations. Now, in mid September, contributors have began reporting protests and roadblocks across Haiti fueled primarily by dissatisfaction with gas prices.

Fuel Crisis

Protests and Roadblocks

Methodology

Premise collected location and event specific data from across Haiti, receiving 102 submissions from the 5 major urban areas in the country between August 15th and September 15th 2022.

Premise in Action

Premise offers a unique ability to quickly source primary insights from real people on the ground in hard-to-reach places. Over 5 million people in 138 countries are using the Premise app on their smartphones, enabling our customers to monitor a situation over time and employ a data-driven approach to timely decision-making. To learn more about Premise, watch our tech demo or get in touch with us.